Source Based Questions
Read the given passage carefully and answer the Questionss that follow:-

"Evidence of an "invasion"

- Deadman Lane is a narrow alley, varying from 3 to 6 feet in width. At the point where the lane turns westward, part of skull and the bones of the thorax and upper arm of an adult were discovered, all in very friable condition, at a depth of 4ft 2in. The body lay on its back diagonally across the lane. Fifteen inches to the west were a few fragments of a tiny skull. It is to these remains that the lane owes its name. FROM JOHN MARSHAL, Mohenjo-Daro and the Indus Civilization, 1931.

- Sixteen skeletons of people with the ornaments that they were wearing when they died were found from the same part of Mohenjo-Daro in 1925.

- Much later, in 1947, R.E.M. Wheeler, then Director - General of the ASI, tried to correlate this archaeological evidence with that of the Rig-Veda, the earliest known text in the subcontinent. He wrote:

- The Rig-Veda mentions pur, meaning rampart, fort or stronghold. Indra the Aryan wargod is called purandara, the fort destroyer.

- Where are - or were - these citadels? It has in the past been supposed that they were mythical .. The recent excavation of Harappa may be thought to have changed the picture. Here we have a highly evolved civilization of essentially non-Aryan type, now known to have employed massive fortification. What destroyed this family settle civilization?
Climatic, economics or political deterioration may have weakened it, but its ultimate extinction is more likely to have been completed by deliberate and large-scale destruction. It may be no mere chance that at a late period of Mohenjo-Daro men, women, and children, appear to have been massacred there. On circumstantial evidence, Indra stands accused.

In the 1960s, the evidence of massacre in Mohenjo-Daro was questioned by an archeologist named George Dales. He demonstrated that the skeletons found at the site did not belong to the same period: Whereas a couple of them definitely seem to indicate a slaughter, the bulk of the bones were found in contexts suggesting burials of the sloppiest and most irreverent nature. There is no destruction level covering the latest period of the city, no sign of extensive burning, no bodies of warriors clad in armour and surrounded by the weapons of war. The citadel, the only fortified part of the city, yielded no evidence of a final defense.

As you can see, a careful re-examination of the data can sometimes lead to a reversal of earlier interpretation.

Q1. Name the archeologist who presented this source?
Ans: John Marshall

Q2. Which argument of the destruction of Harappa civilization, does this excerpt indicates?
Ans: This excerpt indicates that the Harappa civilization was destroyed by foreign invasion.

Q3:- Who corrected this evidence with RigVeda? Why?
Ans:- R.E.M.Wheeler. Rig-Veda mentions pur, meaning rampart, fort or strong-hold. Indra, the Aryans' war-god is called purandara, the fort destroyer.

Q4:- Who propounded the theory opposite to this? How?
Ans:- George Dales. He hesitates to accept that this invasion was carried out by the Aryans. He demonstrated that the skeletons found at the site did not belong to the same period: Whereas a couple of them definitely seem to indicate a slaughter, the bulk of the bones were found in contexts suggesting burials of the sloppiest and most irreverent nature. There is no sign of extensive burning, no bodies of warriors clad in armour and surrounded by the weapons of war.

Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follows -

A small basket of Grapes

This is what Khushdeva Singh writes about his experience during one of his visit to Karachi in 1949.

My friends took me to a room at the airport where we all sat down and talked (and) had lunch together. I had to travel from Karachi to London at 2:30 PM. At 5:00 PM I told my friends that they had given me so generously of their time. I thought it would be too much for them to wait the whole night and suggested that they must spare themselves from the trouble. But nobody left until it was dinner time. Then they said they were leaving and that I must have a little rest before emplaning. I got up about 1:45 AM and when I opened the door I saw that all of them were still there. They all accompanied me to the plane and before parting presented me with a small basket of grapes. I had no words to express my gratitude for the overwhelming affection which I was treated and the happiness this stop overhead given me.

उनके राज्य इस प्रकार अच्छी तरह से चुने और चले हुए, इस अंदाज में तक से निर्मित, इतने मुख्य, इसने सुसंगत तथा फलस्वरूप नहीं रह जाएगी जैसा कि हम उन्हें देखते हैं। इससे ही इसके लिए हमारे शासक अनुभव और साक्षरता है; और हमें यह स्थिति करना चाहिए कि उनकी और बेहतर और राजनीति हो से मेंहा हो। वे जल्द ही रोमांस के निर्माण के पहले स्थानों के, बिअरियों, खतरे के बारे में राजनीति करने रह जाएंगे जैसे कि वे जिनके विपक्ष के मूल से वर्तन किया है।

A warning for Europe

Bernier warned that if European kings followed the Mughal model:
Their kingdoms would be very far from being well-cultivated and peopled, so well built, so rich, so polite and flourishing as we see them. Our kings are otherwise rich and powerful; and we must avow that they are much better and more royally served. They would soon be kings of deserts and solitudes, of beggars and barbarians, such as those are whom I have been representing (the Mughals) ... We should find the great Cities and the great Burroughs (boroughs) rendered uninhabitable because of ill air, and to fall to ruine (ruin) without any bodies (anybody) taking care of repairing them; the hillocks abandon’d, and the fields overspread with bushes, or fill’d with pestilential marishes (marshes), as hath been already intimated.

(14.1) In what ways did Bernier condemn Mughal rulers?
(14.2) What contrasts do the account of Bernier and Abul Fazl’s Ain-i-Akbari?
(14.3) Pride has its fall if power and negligence of duty rules any one.

"Tomorrow we shall break the salt tax law"

On 5 April 1930, Mahatma Gandhi spoke at Dandi:

When I left Sabarmati with my companions for this seaside hamlet of Dandi, I was not certain in my mind that we would be allowed to reach this place.

Even while I was at Sabarmati there was a rumour that I might be arrested. I had thought that the Government might perhaps let my party come as far as Dandi, but not me certainly. If someone says that this betrays imperfect faith on my part, I shall not deny the charge. That I have reached here is in no small measure due to the power of peace and non-violence: that power is universally felt. The Government may, if it wishes, congratulate itself on acting as it has done, for it could have arrested every one of us. In saying that it did not have the courage to arrest this army of peace, we praise it. It felt ashamed to arrest such an army. He is a civilised man who feels ashamed to do anything which his neighbours would disapprove. The Government deserves to be congratulated on not arresting us, even if it desisted only from fear of world opinion. Tomorrow we shall break the salt tax law. Whether the Government will tolerate that is a different question. It may not tolerate it, but it deserves congratulations on the patience and forbearance it has displayed in regard to this party.... What if I and all the eminent leaders in Gujarat and in the rest of the country are arrested? This movement is based on the faith that when a whole nation is roused and on the march no leader is necessary.

Draupadi's Marriage

Drupada, the king of Panchala, organised a competition where the challenge was to string a bow and hit a target; the winner would be chosen to marry his daughter Draupadi. Arjuna was victorious and was garlanded by Draupadi. The Pandavas returned with her to their mother Kunti, who, even before she saw them, asked them to share whatever they had got. She realised her mistake when she saw Draupadi, but her command could not be violated. After much deliberation, Yudhisthira decided that Draupadi would be their common wife. When Drupada was told about this, he protested. However, the seer Vyasa arrived and told him that the Pandavas were in reality incarnations of Indra, whose wife had been reborn as Draupadi, and they were thus destined for each other. Vyasa added that in another instance a young woman had prayed to Shiva for a husband, and in her enthusiasm, had prayed five times instead of once. This woman was now reborn as Draupadi, and Shiva had fulfilled her prayers. Convinced by these stories, Drupada consented to the marriage.

Here is a story from the Adi Parvan of the Mahabharata:

Once Drona, a Brahma who taught archery to the Kuru princes, was approached by Ekalavya, a forest-dwelling nishada (a hunting community). When Drona, who knew the dharma, refused to have him as his pupil, Ekalavya returned to the forest, prepared an image of Drona out of clay, and treating it as his teacher, began to practise on his own. In due course, he acquired great skill in archery. One day, the Kuru princes went hunting and their dog, wandering in the woods, came upon Ekalavya. When the dog smelt the dark nishada wrapped in black deer skin, his body caked with dirt, it began to bark. Annoyed, Ekalavya shot seven arrows into its mouth. When the dog returned to the Pandavas, they were amazed at this superb display of archery. They tracked down Ekalavya, who introduced himself as a pupil of Drona.
Drona had once told his favourite student Arjuna, that he would be unrivalled amongst his pupils. Arjuna now reminded Drona about this. Drona approached Ekalavya, who immediately acknowledged and honoured him as his teacher. When Drona demanded his right thumb as his fee, Ekalavya unhesitatingly cut it off and offered it. But thereafter, when he shot with his remaining fingers, he was no longer as fast as he had been before. Thus, Drona kept his word: no one was better than Arjuna.

(15.1) Why did Drona refuse to have Ekalavya as his pupil?

(15.2) How did Ekalavya react to the demand of his Guru?

The child sati

This is perhaps one of the most poignant descriptions by Bernier:

At Lahore, I saw a most beautiful young widow sacrificed, who could not, I think, have been more than twelve years of age. The poor little creature appeared more dead than alive when she approached the dreadful pit: the agony of her mind cannot be described; she trembled and wept bitterly; but three or four of the Brahmans, assisted by an old woman who held her under the arm, forced the unwilling victim toward the fatal spot, seated her on the wood, tied her hands and feet, lest she should run away, and in that situation the innocent creature was burnt alive. I found it difficult to repress my feelings and to prevent their bursting forth into clamorous and unavailing rage ...

(16.1) Why did Bernier consider this treatment as a crucial marker of the difference between western and eastern societies?
(16.2) What role did the Indian patriarchal society play towards this social evil?
(16.3) Compare the condition of the women of the era mentioned above to that of today.

“अंग्रेज़ तो चले गए, मगर जाते-जाते शरारत का बीज बो गए”

सरदार बल्लभ भाई पटेल ने कहा था :

यह दोहाने का कोई मतलब नहीं है कि हम पृथक निर्वाचिका की माँग इसलिए कर रहे हैं क्योंकि हमारे लिए यही अच्छा है। यह बात हम बहुत समय से सुन रहे हैं। हम सालों से यह सुन रहे हैं और इसी आंदोलन के कारण अब हम एक विभाजित राष्ट्र हैं ... क्या आप मुझे एक भी स्वतंत्र देश दिखा सकते हैं जहाँ पृथक निर्वाचिका हो? अगर आप मुझे दिखा दें तो मैं आपकी बात मान लूंगा। लेकिन अगर इस अंधारे देश में विभाजन के बाद भी पृथक निर्वाचिका की व्यवस्था बनाई रखी गई तो यहाँ जीने का कोई मतलब नहीं होगा। इसलिए मैं कहता हूं कि यह सिफर मेरे मते की बात नहीं है बल्कि आपका बता भी इसी में है कि हम अतीत को मूल जाए। एक दिन हम एकजुट हो सकते हैं ...। और जी तो चले गए, मगर जाते-जाते शरारत का बीज बो गए हैं। हम इस शरारत को और बढ़ाना नहीं चाहते। (सुनिए, सुनिए)। जब अंग्रेज़ ने यह
"British element is gone but they have left the mischief behind"

Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel said:

It is no use saying that we ask for separate electorates, because it is good for us. We have heard it long enough. We have heard it for years, and as a result of this agitation we are now a separate nation ... Can you show me one free country where there are separate electorates? If so, I shall be prepared to accept it. But in this unfortunate country if this separate electorate is going to be persisted in, even after the division of the country, woe betide the country; it is not worth living in. Therefore, I say, it is not for my good alone, it is for your own good that I say it, forget the past. One day, we may be united ... The British element is gone, but they have left the mischief behind. We do not want to perpetuate that mischief. (Hear, hear). When the British introduced this element they had not expected that they will have to go so soon. They wanted it for their easy administration. That is all right. But they have left the legacy behind. Are we to get out of it or not?

The Pilgrimage of the Mughal Princess Jahanara, 1643

The following is an excerpt from Jahanara’s biography of Shaikh Muinuddin Chisti, titled Munis al Arwah (The Confident of Spirits):

After praising the one God…. this lowly faqira (humble soul) Jahanara… went from the capital Agra in the company of my great father (Emperor Shah Jahan) towards the pure region of incomparable Ajmer… I was committed to this idea, that every day in every station I would perform two cycles of optional prayer…

For several days…. I did not sleep on a leopard skin at night, I did not extent my feet in the direction of the blessed sanctuary of the revered saving master, and I did not turn my back towards him. I passed the days beneath the trees.

On Thursday, the fourth of the blessed month of Ramzan, I attained the happiness of pilgrimage to the illuminated and the perfumed tomb… With an hour of daylight remaining, I went to the holy sanctuary and rubbed my pale face with the dust of that threshold. From the doorway to the blessed tomb I went barefoot, kissing the ground. Having entered the dome, I went around the light-filled tomb of my master seven times ….Finally, with my own hand I put the finest quality of itar on the perfumed tomb of the revered one, and having taken off the rose scarf that I had on my head, I placed it on the top of the blessed tomb.
